

Irish Language Courses for International Students

The aim of the courses below is to give basic knowledge and understanding of Irish to students who have no prior knowledge of the language. Through these courses, the students' communicative skills will be developed to enable them to interact through Irish in a range of basic everyday situations.

All Courses are based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, (Level A1-A2)

All Classes will be held in Áras na Gaeilge, an Irish language centre on campus, that operates through the medium of Irish. Áras na Gaeilge also has an Irish language café. All classes will be held in a relaxed and informal atmosphere.
