

Irish Health Economists to meet at NUI Galway

The Health Economics Association of Ireland, set up in 2001 to foster the sharing of information related to health economics, will have its next symposium and meeting at NUI Galway on February 5th, 2009.

Health Economics Association of Ireland (HEAI) Meeting 2009

Date: Thursday February 5th 2009

Start 1pm

Finish 4pm

Venue:

The Moore Institute for Research in the Humanities and Social Studies

National University of Ireland, Galway

Agenda

Research component:

1.00-1.20 Prof Ciaran O' Neill, NUIG: Thoughts on the future of HTA in Ireland.

1.20-1.40 Lee Ann Burke, UCC: Mental Health Related Attrition and Mobility in the Living in Ireland Survey

1.40-2.00 Paul Johnson, UCD/DKM. An Analysis of the Relationship Between Suicide and Public Health Spending in the Mental Health Sector.

2.00-2.20 Eugene Murray, Irish Hospice Foundation: Cost of dying and the economics of palliative care

2.20-2.40 Prof Anthony Staines , DCU: Proposals for a cost study in Ireland

2.40-3.00 Paddy Gillespie, NUIG, Secondary Prevention of Heart Disease in Ireland: An Economic Evaluation'

Administrative component

3.00-4.00

- Proposals for new steering committee and rotating chair/convenor (John Armstrong)

-Recommendations for future topics

Contact: Dr. Brenda Gannon, Brenda.gannon@nuigalway.ie for further details.