1.0 Introduction

NUI Galway is committed to supporting staff undertaking educational programmes to enhance their professional and personal development. This commitment is in accordance with the strategic values of the University, and to support and maximise the potential and growth our staff.

1.1. Purpose

Staff are encouraged to undertake further education/training. This can be through in-house training or through a programme that leads to qualifications that enhance their job contribution, professional and personal development and performance. Any such programme of training and development undertaken should be in line with the staff member’s annual PMDS report, or a recommendation for development following discussion with the staff member’s line manager/Head of School.

1.2. Further Education Policy Group

The scheme will be administered by the Learning and Development unit (HR Office) via the Further Education Policy group; this group will consider applications submitted under the scheme. The Further Education Policy group will consist of the Director of Human Resources (Chair), Deputy Director of Human Resources, Director of Management Accounts and two trade union staff representatives (an academic staff member and an academic support staff member). The Learning and Development unit will seek to ensure that the principles of fairness and equity are applied to all applications.

1.3. Eligibility

Applicants must have completed one year’s service and a successful probationary report before making an application.

A staff member on or who intends to submit an application for unpaid leave such as Special Leave/Career Break scheme for the period for which funding is sought is not eligible to make an application.

Staff members on part-time or job share are eligible to apply but their contracted hours of work must, at a minimum be not less than 20% of their full-time equivalent (FTE).

Staff members on Fixed Term or Specific purpose contracts of employment are eligible to apply for support for the period of (and not exceeding the period of their contract of employment); their eligibility for support will be extended in the event of the renewal or extension of the contract.
Priority will be given to staff member’s applying to the scheme for the first time or those who have not availed of the scheme in the last five years.

1.4. Funding Support Criteria

The scheme aims to support staff taking programmes of study leading to an accredited outcome from Level 6 or above of the National Qualifications Framework (NQF) http://www.nfq.ie. (See Appendix 1 for a classification of the programmes that are included in this scheme). This includes programmes accredited by professional bodies and qualifications from Educational Institutions up to and including doctoral level.

The University is anxious to improve its research and publication ranking in the international league tables and welcomes applications at level 9 and 10 of the NQF.

Programmes of study external to the University will be subject to budgetary constraints, and require 50% co-funding from the staff member’s unit. Each College will be required to provide a number of allocated places on programmes to be granted to staff through the FEP scheme, for those places the course fee will be waived.

1.5. Applications

An application by a staff member for further qualifications should be as an outcome of a discussion with their line manager/Head of School either through PMDS, probations outcome meetings etc. An application can be to support an employee:

• to carry out their role in the University;

• to support the employee’s professional development or

• is deemed desirable by the individual staff member and the University/College/School or Support Service.

Applications which fall into this category are eligible to undertake a course of study on courses which are offered by NUI Galway on a waived fee basis.

For external programmes a business case should be presented. The time to attend taught programmes and assessments will be determined by agreement between the individual and their Head of Unit.

Note: It is recognised that in most cases further academic or vocational qualifications will benefit the University or the applicant’s scope of work as well as the personal and professional development of the individual.
