

INTeRACT for Health: Increasing Integrated Knowledge Translation Capacity for Impact

Tuesday 12th June 2018

10.00 Registration (Tea/Coffee)

Integrated Knowledge Translation Definitions and Applications

10.30 Professor Molly Byrne and Dr Oonagh Meade, Health Behaviour Change Research Group, NUI Galway
Welcome, introductions and INTeRACT project overview

10.45 Professor Maureen Dobbins, McMaster University, Canada
Introduction to Integrated Knowledge Translation and international best practice

11.15 Dr Teresa McGuire, Principal Officer, Research Services, Department of Health
Integrated Knowledge Translation in Ireland: enhancing impact through research, policy and practice partnerships.

11.45 Professor Anne Rogers, Professor of Health Systems Implementation, University of Southampton, U.K.
Can you predict successful knowledge mobilisation and implementation in advance? Learning from the development and roll out of a social network intervention designed to support long term condition management.

12:15 Q & A Panel Discussion

13.00 Lunch

Case Studies: Integrated Knowledge Translation in Action

13.45 Dr Aisling Sheehan, Centre For Effective Services
Anne Pardy, Programme lead, The Nurture Programme – Infant Health and Wellbeing, Department of Public Health, Health and Wellbeing Division, HSE
Nurturing evidence-informed policy and practice in the HSE

14:00 Dr Emma Frew, Reader in Health Economics, University of Birmingham, U.K.
Using economics to support local government policy to tackle childhood obesity

14:15 Fiona Riordan, Research Assistant, University College Cork
Developing and improving indicators to capture the activity of Integrated Care Diabetes Clinical Nurse Specialists: a collaborative audit and feedback process.

14:30 Professor Saoirse Nic Ghabhainn, Health Promotion Research Centre, NUI Galway
Promoting Health with Integrated Knowledge Translation

14:45 Q & A Panel Discussion

15.15 Break and coffee

Interactive Workshop: Integrated Knowledge Translation Resources and Needs Identification

15.30 Professor Maureen Dobbins, McMaster University, Canada
International Integrated Knowledge Translation resources and exploration of Integrated Knowledge Translation needs in Ireland

Closing session

16: 45 Professor Molly Byrne, Health Behaviour Change Research Group, NUI Galway
Workshop Reflections and Closing comments