

The 3rd Annual Beaufort Marine Socio-Economic Workshop

Friday 11th November 2011

Venue: MY129, Aras Moyola, National University of Ireland, Galway

8.45 - 9.25	Registration and Tea/Coffee
Welcome and Overview of Days Proceedings – Professor John McHale
Session 1.	Ocean Economy Analysis: National and Sectoral Perspectives
	Chairperson: Geoffrey O’Sullivan, Marine Institute
9.30 - 9.55	Some Observations about the US Ocean and Coastal Economies from the National Ocean Economics Program	- Judith Kildow, The National Ocean Economics Program, USA.
9.55 - 10.20	Economic implications for the Scottish Western Isles of macrolage cultivation and use	- Grant Allan, Strathclyde University, Scotland
10.20 - 10.45	The potential for an Irish Maritime Transportation Cluster: An Input-Output Analysis	- Karyn Morrissey, University of Liverpool
10.45 – 11.15	Port’s and Shipping Data as Economic Indicators	- Fergal Curtin, IMDO and SEMRU.
11.15 - 11.35	Tea/Coffee
Session 2.	Marine Ecosystem Service Valuation
	Chairperson: Edel Doherty, SEMRU, NUI Galway
11.35 – 12.00	Valuing the Dead Sea and peaceful cooperation in the Middle East	- Alberto Longo, Queens University, Belfast
12.00 - 12.25	Valuing marine environmental characteristics associated with changes to the EU Bathing Water Directive	- Stephen Hynes, SEMRU, NUI Galway
12.25 - 12.50	Site choices in recreational demand: a matter of utility maximization or regret minimization?	- Marco Boeri, Queens University, Belfast
2.00 - 3.00	Valuing oil spill impacts in marine environments: The United States experience and the 2007 oil spill in San Francisco (Lecture Hall 1, St. Anthonys)	- Eric English, Stratus Consulting, Colorado, USA.
12.50- 2.00	Lunch
Session 3.	SEMURU PhD Presentations
	Chairperson: Dr. Judith Kildow,
3.15 - 3.35	Estimating the value of achieving ‘good ecological status’ under the EU Water Framework Directive	- Danny Norton, SEMRU, NUI Galway
3.35 - 3.55	The Role of the Consumer in Driving Sustainable Consumption of Seafood	- Ann Walsh, SEMRU, NUI Galway
3.55 - 3.25	Another collective tragedy? The case of the Killary mussel farming co-operative	- Peter Cush, SEMRU, NUI Galway
3.25 - 3.45	The Cost of Wave Energy Conversion Devices and Implications for Policy	- Niall Farrell, SEMRU, NUI Galway
Close of Workshop		