Publishing: An Editor's Experience

Professor Martin Kilduff

Judge Business School, University of Cambridge, UK

Date / Time: Thursday 3rd February 2011, 11.30am

Venue: Room 110 (SAC Room), Cairnes Building / St. Anthony's

This talk is aimed at academic staff and doctoral students. Professor Kilduff will draw on his editorial experiences with leading management journals, Academy of Management Review, Administrative Science Quarterly and British Journal of Management among others, followed by questions and discussion.

Professor Martin Kilduff:

Martin Kilduff (PhD Cornell, 1988) is Diageo Professor of Management Studies at Cambridge Judge Business School, former editor of Academy of Management Review (2006-08), and currently associate editor of Administrative Science Quarterly. Previously he was the Kleberg/King Ranch Centennial Professor of Management at the University of Texas at Austin, and has also served on the faculties of Penn State and the European Institute of Business Administration. His work focuses on social networks and includes the co-authored books Social Networks and Organizations (Sage: 2003); and Interpersonal networks in organizations: Cognition, personality, dynamics and culture (Cambridge University Press: 2008). His research relates personality to network structure (e.g., Journal of Applied Psychology, 2008), perceived networks to actual networks (e.g., Organizational Behavior and Human Decision Processes, 2008), and proposes new theory concerning scientific innovation (e.g., Academy of Management Review, forthcoming April 2011). His recent publications also include a review of social networks in Academy of Management Annals (2010) and a critical examination of the dark side of emotional intelligence in Research in Organizational Behavior.

All Welcome
