

Nationalism & Organised Violence

A conference of the PSAI Specialist Group on Peace and Conflict in association with the Centre for the Study of Nationalism and Organised Violence at NUI Galway

24th September 2010, NUI Galway
Room 333, Aras Moyola

10.30am Registration & Refreshments

11 am Welcome & Introduction

11.15am Session One: Nationalism and Violence

Nationalism, War and Solidarity

Sinisa Malesevic

NUI Galway

A critique of the problem of violence as the problem of nationalism

Richard Jenkins

University of Sheffield

Discussant: Niall Ó Dochartaigh

1pm Lunch Reception

2pm Session Two: Nationalism in Context

Nationalism, negotiation and the divisibility of territory

Niall Ó Dochartaigh

NUI Galway

Nationalism and political violence in the city

Liam O'Dowd and Katy Hayward

Queen's University Belfast

The 'religious factor' in political violence: Identity, legitimacy and the politics of religious practice

Seán L'Estrange

University College Dublin

Discussant: Richard Jenkins

3.45pm Break

4.15pm Session Three: Comparative approaches to Nationalism

Divergent endings: A comparison of the Provisional Irish Republican Army and the Red Brigades

Lorenzo Bosi & Donatella Della Porta* (* in absentia)

European University Institute, Florence

The resurgence of violent nationalism in Nagorno-Karabakh: a multicausal approach?

Anastasia Voronkova

Queen Mary, University of London

A prophet crying in the wilderness? Ian Lustick and the crises of Israeli state contraction

Timothy Wilson

University of Oxford

Discussant: Sinisa Malesevic

6pm Close