

NUI Galway
OÉ Gaillimh

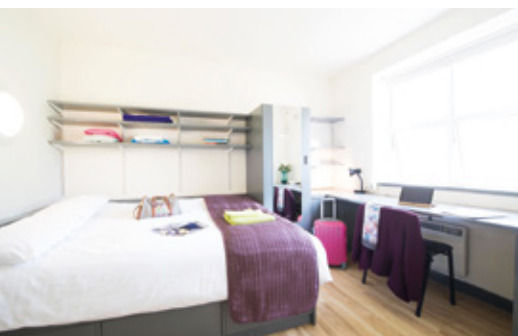

Looking to Travel, Explore & Experience?

Book Your Faculty-Led Summer Study Abroad Programme at the National University of Ireland Galway

Located on the West coast of Ireland, in a city renowned for its culture, history and heritage, NUI Galway has played host to successful faculty-led programmes for over 20 years.

Our University offers modern, state-of-the-art facilities and, with close proximity to vibrant Galway city centre and many of Ireland's most famous tourist attractions, it provides students with an inspirational learning environment and an overall enriching student experience.

- » Located in Galway city, home to the Galway International Arts Festival and Galway Film Fleadh and recently announced as a UNESCO City of Film
- » 260-acre riverside, parkland campus
- » 100 classrooms
- » 764 beds
- » 1 sports centre
- » 16 restaurants/café's

For further information, contact Patricia Walsh on +353 91 493467 or conference@nuigalway.ie

"My experience here in Galway has accounted for so many great memories that I'll have for the rest of my life."

Colleen - University of Wisconsin-La Crosse

University Facts & Figures

- Established in 1845
- Over 17,000 students
- Links with 120 universities across the globe
- Ranked 271st in the QS World University Rankings 2015/2016
- Ranked in the Top 200 Most International Universities

Did You Know?

In 2006, actor Martin Sheen attended NUI Galway as a visiting student while in June 2003, Nelson Mandela, Nobel Laureate and former President of South Africa, was conferred with an Honorary Doctorate of Laws at the University. Other alumni include President of Ireland, Michael D. Higgins and playwright, Enda Walsh.

About Galway

With an array of summer festivals, pubs, restaurants, shops, art galleries and theatres, there is plenty to see and do in vibrant Galway city. In addition, it is close to some of Ireland's most famous tourist attractions such as Connemara and the Cliffs of Moher and is conveniently located just over one hour's drive from Shannon and Knock airports.

nuigalwayevents

#GenerationStudyAbroad

www.campusliving.ie