

Welcome to Linköping University

Faculty of Arts and Sciences

Why study at Linköping University?

We rank highly

Linköping University is a research-based university offering excellence in education. It is a comprehensive university pioneering in interdisciplinary education and research, and is ranked in the top 50 universities under 50 years old by the Times Higher Education and QS.

A degree from Linköping University makes you a highly sought after employee. 9 out of 10 students find jobs after their studies (best in Sweden).

Vibrant student life

Renowned for its vibrant student life, Linköping University welcomes students from all over Sweden as well as from across the globe. The semester kicks off with an orientation period, culminating in Sweden's largest welcome event for new students. Once studies are underway, there is a wide range of student clubs and activities to choose from.

Education and research that make a difference

What makes Linköping University special is the lack of boundaries between different subjects and faculties, which has resulted in world-leading research environments and companies.

Faculty of Arts and Sciences

The Faculty of Arts and Sciences is one of Linköping University's largest faculties, with 14,000 students and more than 40 areas of study. Our extensive network of partner universities covers almost every part of the world, and each year we welcome around 300 incoming exchange students and send equally many of our students abroad.

The following areas of study offer courses in English:

- Ageing and Social Change
- Applied Ethics
- Business Administration
- Cognitive Science
- Commercial Law
- Communication
- Computational Social Sciences
- Economics
- English Language and Literature
- Environmental Science
- Ethnic and Migration Studies
- History/Swedish Culture and Society
- Human Resource Management and Development
- Media Production
- Political Sciences
- Social Work
- Social and Cultural Analysis
- Statistics
- Swedish Language Courses
- Urban and Regional Planning

Linköping and Norrköping

Education at the Faculty of Arts and Sciences takes place at our campuses in Linköping and Norrköping. In these two medium-sized cities, home to major international companies and flourishing start-ups, students do not have to choose between bustling city life and relaxing countryside - they are just around the corner from each other! Moreover, Linköping University runs its own campus bus, carrying students between our campuses free of charge.

Located in eastern Sweden, between Stockholm and Gothenburg, the Linköping-Norrköping region is also a perfect starting point for exploring Sweden as well as Europe. Both cities are well connected by train and bus, and Linköping even boasts its own international airport with daily flights to Amsterdam and onwards.

Facts about Linköping University

- 37,600 students
- 135 study programmes, 26 taught in English
- 4 campuses
- 4,300 employees
- 320 professors
- 1,200 PhD students
- 4 faculties:
 - Faculty of Arts and Sciences
 - Faculty of Educational Sciences
 - Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences
 - Faculty of Science and Engineering

More information: liu.se/en

We are open to new collaborations:
International@ffk.liu.se