Courses and study requirements

LANGUAGE OF INSTRUCTION

English and Swedish

COURSE LOAD

Exchange students are expected to study full-time, 30 credits/semester (usually 4 courses of 7,5 credits each). Note that full-time studies is a condition for getting a residence permit from the Swedish Migration Agency.

Lund University has no formal add and drop period at the beginning of the semester, which means that there are limited chances to change courses upon arrival. Therefore, it is important that your choice of courses, including alternatives, is accurately selected, and approved for accreditation by your home university.

COURSES FOR EXCHANGE STUDENTS

As an exchange student of the Joint Faculties of Humanities and Theology students can apply for courses at the other faculties as well, however admission is subject to the student being satisfactorily qualified for the chosen area of study and course level, and availability. Please note that at least 50% of the credits must be studied at the Joint Faculties of Humanities and Theology.

- Find courses in English: www.ht.lu.se/en/international/information-for-incoming-exchange-students/planning-your-studies/
- Special Area Studies (SAS) in English: Exchange students can apply for 'Special Area Study' (SAS) courses in subjects such as Swedish culture and society, European studies, regional courses and global issues of contemporary interest. These courses do not usually require previous studies in the subject as an admission requirement. This gives exchange students the opportunity to gain new knowledge in subjects that may be outside of the student's normal degree programme. www.lunduniversity.lu.se/sas
- Swedish Language Courses for exchange students (SVE): www.lunduniversity.lu.se/exchange-swedish (not available for Danish and Norwegian students). Swedish Language Courses can be counted within or in addition to a full-time study load.
- Introductory Swedish Course (SUSA) for exchange students during the Orientation Weeks: www.lunduniversity.lu.se/exchange-swedish

STUDYING IN SWEDISH

Students with a background in Scandinavian studies or who have studied in a Nordic school system may be able to apply for courses with Swedish as the language of instruction. Find courses and programmes in Swedish: www.ht.lu.se/en/education/courses/

Please note! If you find a course on a webpage stating "Kan bara sökas inom utbildningsprogram" – the course is not available.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

It is recommended that the student's level of English language proficiency is equivalent to IELTS 6.5/ TOEFL 90.

The Swedish language requirement for exchange students wishing to study Swedish-taught courses is level C1, or B2 depending on course, of the Common European Framework of Reference for languages (CEFR).

SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS

The admission requirements (prerequisites) for each course can be found on the website of the relevant department. Many courses require at least 1 year of full-time studies within the subject area.

- Faculty of Law requires 2 years of prior studies in the subject.
- Faculty of Engineering requires at least 2 years of prior studies.
- School of Architecture requires 3 years of prior studies in the subject. Portfolio required to apply.
