

Language Qualification Requirement

All applicants whose first language is not English or who have not been educated through the medium of the English language during their two most recent years of study are required to demonstrate proficiency in English. This prerequisite ensures that candidates possess the language skills to excel in our program. The English language qualification must have been obtained two years before the application deadline. We accept a diverse range of English language qualifications, which include, but are not limited to:

- IELTS (International English Language Testing System)
- Cambridge C1 Advanced (Certificate in Advanced English)
- Cambridge C2 Advanced (Certificate of Proficiency in English)
- TOEFL iBT (Test of English as a Foreign Language internet-based test)
- TOEFL iBT Home Edition
- Pearson PTE (Pearson Test of English)
- Duolingo English Test

These qualifications are widely recognised and respected, offering a comprehensive assessment of English language proficiency across all essential skills, including reading, writing, speaking, and listening.

Applicants are strongly encouraged to verify that their selected English language qualification aligns with the minimum requirements set forth by their host institution. This ensures that candidates are adequately equipped to engage actively in academic studies and research within our program.

For comprehensive details regarding our English language proficiency prerequisites and the list of acceptable qualifications, please consult the guidelines provided by your chosen institute's international office. They will offer valuable insights and guidance tailored to your specific circumstances.

We appreciate your attention to this matter and look forward to receiving your application. Should you have any further inquiries or require assistance, please do not hesitate to contact our admissions team or the international office of your selected institute.
